

The Gentlemen of St. John's Choral Students At Burghley House

Celebrating the quincentenary of the founding of St. John's College Cambridge (founded 9th April 1511 by Lady Beaufort—The Lady of Deeping—who also founded the Tudor Dynasty being the mother of King Henry VII)

William Cecil, who built Burghley House in 1555, went to St. John's College in 1534 as did 5 Earls and Marquises of Exeter. The association of St. John's College and the Cecil family are coming together in a double celebration in the Great Hall of Burghley House.

Saturday 1st October 2011

7.00pm for 7.30pm

Tickets £20.00 available from Annette Beeton—01733 232521

in aid of

CANCER RESEARCH UK

Proceeds will go to Cancer Research UK and will be used for clinical trials in Cambridge and Peterborough.